We're living in a constant fight
Too much pressure everywhere and all around
Don't let it put you down
Hold on tight, cling to your dreams

Don't you depend on someone else
Think for yourself and win the race

The chance you got comes never twice
Do your best and do it right
Time will come but don't you hide
You are on your way

You're led by God but you're not a pawn
Should live your life, don't care 'bout any scorn
Just let them fool around, no need to cry
Don't give up

Try to be as smart as you can be
I know you own so much ability

The chance you got comes never twice
Do your best and do it right
Time will come but don't you hide
You are on your way

The chance you got comes never twice
Do your best and do it right
The time will come but don't you hide
You are on your way

The chance you got comes never twice
Do your best and do it right
Time will come but don't you hide
You are on your way
