Insania 2014

We've thrown away our former gods
Controlling our day
We have created better ones
So we control the way

We are the ones with the power
To hold down the enemy
Our gods are perfect
And they are protecting our lives

We still need some more of them
To be safe from the other side
As long as we're stronger
Nothing will happen to us

Fireflash in the night
Just an evil dream
Holy war in the sky...never

Insania 2016

Error in store 103
We watch the sun at night
The pretty gods we've built ourselves
Now terminate our lives

Silicone brain Powered voices
Are crying "attack" tonight
Our gods are now fighting
In anger, burning our world

Doomsday has come
And there is no place to hide away
The future is over
And there is no turning back

Fireflash in the night
Now reality
Holy war in the sky...

Twilight of the gods

Insania's dead and gone
Another world was born
But the twilight soon will come

Fireflash in the night
Now reality
Holy war in the sky...

Twilight of the gods
Insania's dead and gone
Another world was born
But the twilight soon will come
