(M&L - Kiske)

Now there is this day
A lot of things are changing
Can't just kick it away,
Got to get things right

Sometimes it happens fast
But nothing seems to last
The thing that I once started
Isn't mine anymore
I guess now is my turn

You've got a face like a child
Got a mind like a woman
Your smile is warm and tender

I hear the people say
That I should stay away
From you and all
The problems you might bring
They'll never know - you

Nobody ever knows what to do
They'll never see you cry
They'll never know why

Now it's your turn to break free
When you want it all you've got to see
Now it's your turn to break free
When you want the life
You've got to see what it means

See the little boy
Holding mama's hand
His eyes can see the thing
We've long forgotten

The world is easy now - and somehow
He's right until there is this day
When Mickey Mouse must go away

Now it's your turn to break free
When you want it all you've got to see
Now it's your turn to break free
When you want the life
You've got to see what it means

This world is crying to be free
This world is dying can't you see
We need a turn to do it right
We need a mind revolution
To get away from this selfishness
Stop playing blind - break free

Now it's your turn to break free
When you want it all you've got to see
Now it's your turn to break free
When you want the life
You've got to see what it means
