Well keep on rocking til the sun goes to moonlight
So damn strong well survive a catfight
Were the devils pride, singing his song
With an awesome ride
Well keep on fucking this up til the last fight
Downtuned and ugly but so right
No fame, never divine
Pure rock n roll with an awesome shine

[Chorus:]

Rocking free forever on
I do believe when you feel, when you see
Oh when youre dreaming
Theres magic in these words
Underneath, the battles on Climbing high and reaching up to the ceiling
The beat goes on to be heard

So youre up for a dance in the moonlight
Swinging hips, delivering so tight
At the devils side, doing the steps with an awesome pride
Youll keep on fucking this up til the last night
In the end youll survive the big fight
No shame, always on time
Pure rock n roll delivered with pride
