I'd better step into my boots, keep shocking
A box of red wine keeps my head up rocking
A big pack of kicks and I'll go again

You'd better start to wake up, baby
A few more miles and then we'll maybe
See the shores that we call our home again

Do you dare to call the sins of a lifetime?
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

I'd better run away from home, keep rocking
Like one soldier on his own so fucking
Arrogant to ask for death again

It's like running with a gun, sleep safely
Going out there on your own, honestly
Does any of this make fucking sense?

Do you dare to call the sins of a lifetime?
Sleep with this [Incomprehensible]
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

Do you dare to call the sins of a lifetime?
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win
Do you really want to go
Living life in the afterglow?

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win

It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
It's a sin, it's a second of skin
It's a time warp, feel it on the sidewalk
S.O.S., you've got to gamble to win
