The air you breathe
You suck the life out of me
Your mouth moves like
Somethin' shakin' loose

God knows these insults
Don't even phase you now

Don't get comfortable
Start thinkin'
I still believe you now
I know you're lying

I'd take my death
Before I'd let you win
I am removed, there's nothin'
Left to prove

You're down, I don't care
You know, this life is unfair

Don't get comfortable
Start thinkin'
I still believe you now
I know you're lying
I know you're lying, I know you lie

If I believe you now then I'm to blame
But I know what you are

So don't get comfortable
Start thinkin'
I don't realize it now
I know you're lying
I know you're lying, I know you lie

You lie
You lie
You lie
