Who we be?

We be the b double o - t - c - a - m - p ( x3 )

I'm caught up in a zone of my own, I rome Run my fingers through my hair and give air to my stoned dome
And analyse, who to tear through, I dare you
Devils that try to ban me that dare would be bare proof
Who's he? stalking the streets when there's no life
Eyes glow like tiko night glows, we's in flight
But it don't glow like, wack, the glow's phat
And it be the only glow that lemme know where a true warrior be at

Ogc, gunn clappa, number 2
Louieville, do he ill, snap in half your crew
Back, smack, a few of you till your ears ring
Duke I smack 'em with the bat. why?
So my hands don't sting
I bring rec in this game, and don't shit change
I inflicts pain like a stressed brain having a migraine
Heads talk trash, walk in paths like anorexic
Patients, laced up, overdosed in the exits
And see, hears, these dumb, blind rappers
Who don't know the meaning of the originoo gunn clappaz
Many phrases, many ways you can explain this Put on some rough, tough shit, huh, I'll make you famous
So, step don't stare, dare cross this path beware
Representativz and foul play out the rear (out the rear)

Chorus:

We see in the dark like an owl
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl
Out to eliminate those who live foul
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl

Creep stalking, we, coughing,
Burgling, make me wonder why I'm not sleep walking Peeps talking, I hear 'em as I walk by, but they all die
I'm fortified with the 45

Fuck it! let me proceed with the mission
No need for intermission, I need trees in my system
Cut down through mart, then I head for brisk in park

With my p 'n' c, for some yard to spark
No need to get hyper, I see, c, cypher Power on the corner fucking with my niggers, every hour
I devour, niggers who wanna test me and defy me
It might be giuliani or the illuminati
But I be, writing plans of attack in my journal
So, ruck, rock, ville sluggah remains nocturnal Seeing through sheisty shit, shining like I'm solar Penetrate through darkness bounce like I'm sonar

Chorus:

We been found less an organised ways to buckwild
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl
Spread the word, 29 million square miles
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl

One klik, stomping on the path, that's so hard Ain't no smiling, we up against the odds like phil collins
Meanwhile, I still be wilding, but only smarter (what? ) Peep me the irrational and the quiet riot starter Pardon this, I see you're not the sharpest pencil in the box
No where near a match, you get smashed by a rock
I done seen 3 dollar bills and you faker
And you wonder why I hate ya
A snake'll get snatched by his tail, slammed on his head
Give me some panda thread ( ? ? ) the cobra command the dead
Ban the red
W - hypen b - u recognise! heltah skeltah digs them and not you

Outro:

Damn, ? ? trials
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl
We live nocturnal in the ninety-now
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl
In the concretes streets of bucktown
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl
Don't let your name show up next on my foul (file)
Daytime's used to plot schemes for the night prowl
