Wouldn't be the first time
Love made a fool of me
Wouldn't even care
But now you're here to see

It comes as no surprise
Just leave the light on

What I wouldn't give
If you could have it all
The sun that's going down
The bed that breaks the fall

The cradle and the bow
So you can take comfort now
You can take comfort now

Sometimes a heart can break
And make it's own relief
The way a cold dark night
Invites the fire thief

He wants to show us how
So we can take comfort now
We can take comfort now
We can take comfort now

Leave the light on
