"A Heavenly Light"

Oh, I took pride trying to fix the world
Lost sight, found myself alone
At the crossroads
With a heavenly load
Takin' me the wrong way
Thought I was doin' right, but then
All of a sudden a heavenly light goes on
(It's a little brighter than before)
Felt lost in a twist of reality
Struck blind squarely by the truth
I said, "I'm so far from where you are Lord, even the wise men seemed to need a star"
And so all of a sudden a heavenly light goes on
(It's a little brighter than before)
A light in the darkness always changes everything,
yeah
(Oooh)
I'm in a slow revival from a rude awakening
Hey!
Oh, yeah!
Well, it's a sure sign for seeking time
Take another hard look
(Yeah)
Where I'm going wrong
And the all of a sudden a heavenly light goes on
(It's a little brighter than before)
Leads back to the Savior, don't need to fix the world,
yeah!
[scat singing]
All of a sudden a heavenly light goes on, on
All of a sudden don't need to fix the world no more
(I saw heavenly light!)
Whoo, hoo!
Oh, I need to have your heavenly light
Oh, yeah! Heavy load!
Need to have your heavenly light
(Crossroad)
Whoo, hoo!
(Heavy load)
Oh, yeah a little heavenly light!
('Til I saw heavenly light
So far from where you are

Then I saw heavenly light)
Oh, yeah!
(Crossroad)
Oh!
(Heavy load)
Need a little light!
(Til I saw heavenly light)
A little heavenly light, yeah!
(So far from where you are)
Whoo, hoo!
(Then I saw heavenly light)
Got to have your heavenly light
Got to have a little heavenly light
Need to have your, your, hea
