Armed with all the words a man can find
I speak of lasting love
Oh, and all that I know of you
Is still not half of what I feel
But nothin' I can find to say
Describes the place you hold inside my heart
Not at all like love I've read about
So much deeper tahn the words
Oh simplest words to say

In all we've been through
I still love you
Simple as that
Simple as that fact
No regret and no revision
I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back, no
I'm sayin' I made the right decision
And I'm gonna stand by you
As long as you'll have me, too

I know the work takes me around the world
I keep coming back to you
Oh, you're the hope I'm running to
After all that's said and done
So please forgive me when I fail
My sad attempts don't seem to make it clear
There's only simple words that I can choose
And they're the same words every time
Oh the simplest words that come to mind

In all we've been through
I still love you
Simple as that
Simple as that fact
No regret and no revision
I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back, no
I'm sayin' I made the right decision
And I'm gonna stand by you
As long as you'll have me, too

As long as you'll have me
As long as you'll have me, too

Oh and I find the simplest words
Simplest words that come to mind

In all we've been through
I still love you
Simple as that
Simple as that fact
No regret and no revision
I'm not looking back

In all we've been through
I still love you
Simple as that
Simple as that fact
No regret and
