Sweep me away
To an all new horizon on a brighter day
Sweep me away
From the dungeons of evil where the captives lay
Carrying on but waiting
Always ready, willing, I watch the sky
I'm in hope of seeing your face returning
I could never live here without you
I'm just waiting for the day you sweep me away
Like a sail in the ocean, on a windy day
(Sweep me away)
In the sparkle of sunlight on a distant bay
My ties here are temporary
I know that we're all running out of time
But I'm not gonna cry out to the rocks to hide me
Patiently I'm waiting here for you
Until there's nothing left to do but sweep me away
(Sweep me away!)
Coming back for me
I don't know when
But you'll have my allegiance until then
Promises are true
They've always been
And I will live or die to honor you, yeah
(Sweep me away)
To an all new horizon
(Sweep me away)
From the dungeons of evil
(Sweep me away)
Like a sail in a the ocean
(Sweep me away)
In a sparkle of sunlight
Sweep me away!
