You never said goodbye
Before tearing away
And I could never find you
It's good to hear your voice
Tell me are you O.K.?
Sounds like you're so far away
Take all the time you need
Just stay on the line
I'll hear you this time
Tell me where you are
Oh, I don't want you to feel lost forever
Tell me where you are
I'll be there and if you need
I'll bring you home
So much we left unsaid
Though we never agree
I still miss the time with you here
'Cause you'll always be my child
What I'm longing to say
Let's lay this broken past aside
If you're reachin' out to me again
I am here
I'll give you my time
Sharing the pain won't wash it all away
But there'll be a cleaner wound
It'll heal one day
Oh, oh, oh! Oh!
If you're reachin' out to me again, I am here
I'll give you my time
Tell me where you are
Oh, I don't want you to feel lost forever
Just tell me where you are
I'll be there for you I swear
I'll bring you home
Oh!
