Somebody told me just the other day
That you're leavin' me, we're through
Well, if you knew how it hurt me so
Then you'd change your mind, I'm sure

Don't want to hear what's going on
I don't care what's new
Don't want to know about anything
'Cos all I want is you

Going out with other girls
Was always such a bore
But since I fell in love with you
I need you more and more

Don't want to know about one-night-stands
Cut-price souvenirs
All I want is the real thing
And a night that lasts for years

If you ever change your mind
I've a certain cure
An old refrain it lingers on
L'amour, toujours, l'amour

Don't want to learn about etiquette
From glossy magazines
Why should I try to talk correct
Like they do in other scenes?

Say no more about imagery
You're starting to confuse
Just make an offer of more romance
Of course I can't refuse

All I want is you
Ooh, I'm all cracked up on you
