Henry Ate
"Just"

Lately IÂ've been thinking what if I was wrong
And the world never meant you and I to belong WeÂ'd have wasted so much time building castles in the sky
Only to watch them all fall down
Would it be all of our dreams so well suited to you and I Could only be half acquired would it be worthwhile?

If I could just understand this
I might then try forgiveness
Know that I will, each time I feel
YouÂ'll be by, youÂ'll be by, youÂ'll be by my side
In the end, weÂ'll still be friends
AinÂ't it shocking how your sympathetic world amends
And in time, youÂ'll realise
IÂ'm not what I seem inside
I go wild, I go wild, I go wild

For lately IÂ've been thinking what if you were wrong

And all the things youÂ've taken were never meant to be gone YouÂ'd have given a gift from above so freely having given no thoughts to love
And would it be all of your dreams so better suited to someone like me
I would watch you achieve wouldnÂ't that make me so damn unhappy
On the level thinking back - IÂ...

No if I could just understand this
I might then try forgiveness
Know that I will, each time I feel
YouÂ'll be by, youÂ'll be by, youÂ'll be by my side
In the end, weÂ'll still be friends
AinÂ't it shocking how your sympathetic world amends
And in time, youÂ'll realise
I go wild, I go wild, I go wild
No if I could just
