Who's gonna be the hero?
Who's gonna be the one?
Who's gonna save the children?
And all things under the sun?
I come so close to losing someone...
That i love so dear
All the best things i can remember
Were running with my tears
Without you i'd have nobody...
Without you i'd be alone
Without you it'd be much harder
I need you to help make my home
A better place
Who's gonna be the hero?
Who's gonna be the one?
Who's gonna save the children?
And all things under the sun?
And will tomorrow be much better...for this world and i?
You and i can make it happen...we need only try
Together we'll make a difference
Together we'll light the way
Together we'll change tomorrow
Together we'll make today
A better place
We got to be the hero
We got to be the one
We got to save the children
And all things under the sun
We got to be the hero
We got to be the one
We got to save the children
And all things under the sun
