Let's run away from reality
And roll around in a fantasy
We won't to anyone we're leaving
We'll sneak out while their sleeping
No shoes and no blues
No rules and any road to choose

Life will wait while the day escapes
Please stay it's safe to play
Life will wait
Won't you please stay it's safe to play

Away from the lights
And the burdens of the city
Sitting in a sunny spot just forever kidding
When's the last time you took it all in Smoking with a grin
When's the last time you took it all in sit and watch the world spin
Cause we're in the middle of this big old riddle
Thousands of stars can make you feel so little

Life will wait while the day escapes
Please stay it's safe to play
Life will wait
Won't you please stay it's safe to play
I think it's safe to play
You know it's safe to play
I think it's safe to play

Life will, life will wait one day, one day escape in a daydream in a daydream
