If you listen I'll try and explain
All the little ways I have changed Though I know to you it seems plain Things can't always remain the same

All the schemes that I planned yesterday (planned yesterday)
have died before reaching today (reaching today)
Now they're lost in a non stop tomorrow
I was wrong to try and borrow from your time

Please don't feel bad about the love that we had together
I'm not quite the same as I was when I came
I feel better than before
But it doesn't seem to matter much anymore

I can tell by the way you look at me (you look at me)
That you can't bring yourself to see (yourself to see) That something you haven't seen could have slowly won it's way between you and me

Though it isn't the way that I planned it (way that I planned it) but can't say that I understand it (I understand it) There's something that we can't undo
I'll been slowly changing away from you

together
I'm not quite the same as I was when I came
I feel better than before
