"Easy To Fool"

Everytime I'm tired of your cheating and I feel how my love's turning cool (turning cool)
You just cry (you just cry), tell a lie (tell a lie) then I'm easy to fool

When I tell myself not to believe you but to leave you when you make me mad (make me mad)
You look sad (you look sad), I feel bad (I feel bad)
I'm so easy to fool

Stay away, that's what people say
I know that the bad things I hear of you aren't true

But when I tell you that I look through you
you just smile and my heart's in a spin (in a spin)
I give in (I give in) and you win (and you win)
'cause I'm easy to fool

Stay away, that's what people say
I know that the bad things I hear of you aren't true

But when I tell you that I look through you
you just smile and my heart's in a spin (in a spin)
I give in (I give in) and you win (and you win)
'cause I'm easy to fool

I'm so easy
I'm so easy to fool
yeah
easy to fool
I am, I am
