Would you like to go, would you like to go
Would you like to go, would you like to go back to the land that you and I once knew

back to the land that you and I once knew

Where prophets play electric guitars right into the stars that shine for you and I, your twinkling eye invites me to bring you

Would you like to go, would you like to go
Would you like to go, would you like to go back to the land that you and I once knew

Would you like to go, would you like to go back to the land that you and I once knew

Where choruses of angels all sing Hallelujah with portable phonographs made in Japan, selling for less calling me to you

Would you like to go, would you like to go
Would you like to go, would you like to go Ba Ba Ba...

Would you like to go, would you like to go
Would you like to go, would you like to go
Ba Ba Ba...Ooohhh...

We'll fly into the evening mist and have our backs scratched by a smile
A while ago I started to begin a song
I hope it won't take long

Would you like to go, would you like to go
Would you like to go, got the guts to go only we will know, ooohhh...
