So this is what you get,
cause this is all that's left.
When you're tired of yourself and your surroundings,
It all comes down to this.

That you dig to dig a hole,
and you grow just to grow old.

So you got something to show me, if you got a good thing going.
To me there nothing worse then be taken for a ride.

A locked up from inside and you know you've lost your time and whatever was in it.
It all comes down to this.

That you dig to dig a hole,
and you grow just to grow old.

So you got something to show me, if you got a good thing going
Cause to me there nothing worse then this.

This is it I guess, I tried but failed the test.
And I'm too tired to try again so I just give in.
it all comes down to this.

You going, going, gone and I'm left to be alone.

So you got something to show me, if you got that good thing going
Cause to me there nothing worse then this.
