The sooner the better
But later than expected
Arriving, the weather
And I just can't forget her
I'm trying I'm trying
But I'm sure it's just denying
The fact that it's all set
And I can't change nothing
This town is wearing me out
This town is wearing you out
This town is wearing us out
That's what this town is all about
That's what this town is all about
The sooner the better
Happily ever after
No, there are no regrets here
If just time would move faster
I'm dying I'm trying
But I'm sure it's all denying
The fact that it's all set
And I won't change nothing
This town is wearing me out
This town is wearing you out
This town is wearing us out
That's what this town is all about
That's what this town is all about
This town is wearing me out
This town is wearing you out
This town is wearing us out
