There is a man sitting in a window
Watching the late night sun
It is chill and breezy, I'm cold
But he doesn't seem to understand
Escape away through Cinema Cafe
The curtains whirl slowly
A cat comes by
While I enjoy my fantasio
And you enjoy me
The dark replaces the daylight
Thoughts prepare the dreams
You like life when we make love
And I'm the other way
Hunger after life
Was sealed with kiss and naked bodies
To drown our fear for life
In ecstasy of love
You like life when we make love
I make love when life is good
There is a couple sitting in a blue room
Watching a late night film
The girl is talking, she is here
While the man slowly fades away
Our hunger after life
Was sealed with a kiss
And naked bodies in the hot dry night
We were married in the desert
Where no trees grow
To drown our fear for life
In ecstasy of love
