Every second breathes life into reason for dying
Our own ignorance will only stunt our final will to live
Bound and gagged, I feel forced back in a losing race
I've been stepped on and passed by
But I have enough hope to keep fighting

All of my life, all of my pain
Driven by suffering
All of my life, all of my pain
Driven by suffering

Every single choice I must make
Driven by suffering
Every single choice I must make
Driven by suffering

Suffering
