

Herbert Grönemeyer

"All That I Need"

Visit "All That I Need" on MotoLyrics.com

Just want you to be
Right on the screen
You rob me of my senses
And set the sunrise in my head
Just a beautiful dream
Makes me surrender
And sweet surrender
Is all that I need

I'll march a parade
Right up to your gates
Look out of the window
If it isn't too late
I'll write you my songs
Till the world screams at me
With no assistance
You just wait and see
I've readied the ships
Hand wrapped the moon
I've cut all the cables
Nothing but the truth
I've burnt all of my bridges
To be alone with you

Just want you to be
Right on the screen
You rob me of my senses
And set the sunrise in my head
Just a beautiful dream
Makes me surrender
And sweet surrender
Is all that I need

I've hung millions of reasons
There on your fence
Just ask me a question
Sharp or intense
You're there for
Like the seasons
Wide like the plains
You're my civilization

So call me again
You've put hope in my sails
And my stars on the line
Paint fields golden
And open my eyes
You're in every direction
My compass and guide

Just want you to be
Right on the screen
You rob me of my senses
And set the sunrise in my head
Just a beautiful dream
Makes me surrender
And sweet surrender
Is all that I need

And when the dark days
Come to find you
I will follow
If you reach out in need
I'll take you in
Break your heart away
From its sorrow
To the end of all the rain

You put the wind in the sails
And the stars on a line
Painted fields golden
And it's opened my eyes
You're in every direction
My compass and guide

And when the dark days
Come to find you
I will follow
If you reach out in need
I'll take you in
This beautiful dream
Makes me surrender
And sweet surrender
Is all that I need
This beautiful dream
Makes me surrender
Oh sweet surrender
Surrender
Is all that I need

