On the front page of the paper
Speeding window of a train
On a billboard on a highway
It always looks the same
A smile out of nowhere stops me in my tracks
I can't believe that after all this time
You still have that kind of impact

Everywhere I turn I see your face
Proving that a fool's love never fades
In my mind your image is forever burned
I keep trying not to stare but you're always there
Everywhere I turn

On a steamed up café window
I spell out your name, baby
I watch the people run across the street
Through the pouring rain
And there you are again so easy to find
Under the umbrella in another one's eyes
Everywhere I turn I see your face
Proving that a fool's love never fades
In my mind your image is forever burned
I keep trying not to stare but you're always there
Everywhere I turn

Well I thought I'd suffered long enough for you, babe
And my mind would let go of the pain any day
It don't work that way

Everywhere I turn I see your face
Proving that a fool's love never fades
In my mind your image is forever burned
I keep trying not to stare but you're always there
Everywhere I turn
Everywhere I turn
Everywhere I turn
Everywhere I turn, yeah
Everywhere I turn
Everywhere I turn
Everywhere I turn
