[Babatunde Olatunki]

Please.. wake me when I am free

I cannot bear activity

Where my couch, I am told, "Hold no significance"

I waited and died in ignorance but my inner eye can see, erase who reigned as king in another place

The green trees were reached from fall and every man spoke of beautiful men and women together as people

War was gone because all was at peace but now like a nightmare, I woke to see that I live like a prisoner of poverty..

Please.. wake me when I am free

I cannot bear activity

Fall, I will have a ?, stricken blind than to live without expression of mind

{Babatunde Olatunki begins to speak in another language}
