Bryan White & Lila McCann

Tell me one sweet lie, tell me our love's just fine
And everything will be alright
Say you're not gonna leave, that you still love me
And we'll start all over tonight

That look is in your eyes
And all I can hear is the sound of goodbye

You're gone, no two ways about it
Though you stand in front of me it's real easy to see
That you're gone, and it's time to face the truth
That my world just fell apart and I don't know what to do
You're gone

I could turn my head, forget what we said
And all the words that cut like a knife
Whether you go or stay, you're gone either way
And I'll love you the rest of my life

I can tell your mind is set
The words you didn't say, I will never forget

You're gone, no two ways about it
Though you stand in front of me it's real easy to see
That you're gone, and it's time to face the truth
That my world just fell apart and I don't know what to do
You're gone

I'll never give up believing
And I know one day I'll win you back
And you'll love me just like I love you
But right now it's a matter of fact

You're gone, no two ways about it
Though you stand in front of me it's real easy to see
That you're gone, and it's time to face the truth
That my world just fell apart and I don't know what to do

You're gone
Oh yeah
