did i make a clean escape?
or will i feel you pull me back again?
the choices made have left a bitter taste
but i never told you should have told you

got this city on it's knees and i think i like it can't you see that this is killing me?

cause every line in every song reminds me of where i belong can't pretend that what you said back then was nothing more than desperate lies so i turn my back and say goodbye

(alright!)
you'll never bring me down so will i make it through the night?

the things i used to hold on to they're all gone
the choices made have left a bitter taste
but i never told you

walk away
turn and watch as it falls to the ground the sky opens up to swallow you whole

(this city never forgets a face and i've spent too long in this awkward place all i want is to be free cause you're all fucking dead to me) baby, tell me

can't you see that this is killing me?
reminds me of where i belong
