If your world has been shattered or somebody threatened you bad
You come to the right place I can help you with that You need two strong arms to make you feel like you never had
Come a little closer baby I can help you with that I can't promise you the moon but if you just let me

Chorus

I can't promise you you won't hurt like that again
If you want a man you can depend on
Someone who loves you back
Come here baby I can help you with that

If you think like crying and think nobody understands
And you need a shoulder I can help you with that If you think you are ready to try and love again
Don't look any further
I can help you with that

Chorus

If you want a man you can depend on
Someone who loves you back
Come here baby I can help you with that
Come here baby I can help you with that
