Deep down inside of night
There's a basic feeling of appetite for love

The shadows fall, the moon comes out
And night owls crawl the streets no doubt, for love

(x2):

Don't be fooled by her love

You can never win

You can buy her everything

And she will blow it in Influential people went

Their Swedish cars are just in trend for love

A girl walks by across the street

The headlights flash and then they meet for love

Yeah, they meet for love

They meet for love

Yes, for love
