Baby your eyes are like sunshine

Your smile is the sweetest

I've seen in my lifetime

????????????????????

Waiting to make you happy

Then you suddenly kissed me

And you said because you couldn't resist me

I never knew you felt the same way too

Tonight's the night the world's ours

We're gonna celebrate our love among the stars

I will be yours and you will be mine

Until the sun begins to shine

Under the moon the moon of love

????????????????

I must have been blinded

But now I found you

I really don't mind it.

You opened my eyes

Showing me what to look for

You started a fire

I feel a deep and burning desire

Baby I'm yours and that's forever more

Tonight's the night...
