(michael casswell)

You smile for the camera
You look like an angel from above
Way above
They all need to meet you
I think what they feel must be love
Is it love?

Time to consider, time to reflect
Turning to face you when you least Expect

Face to face
Talking to you, talking out of place
Face to face
With each other
How we talk in haste

Words go in circles
Blood rushes faster through our veins
Through our veins
When you're losing control
You hope I will act just the same
Just the same

There's no intention of recompense
Words you were saying just weren't Making sense

Face to face
Talking to you, talking out of place
Face to face

We are helpless
Locked in love's embrace

Your eyes are receptive
Your heart holds a secret close to mine
Close to mine
I guess what you're saying
Is we have our good and bad times

Our bad times

Words turn to tears when you break
Down and cry
We can amend it if only we try

Face to face
Talking to you (to you), talking out
Of place
Face to face
With each other
Locked in love's embrace

Face to face
With each other
Locked in love's embrace

We coulda done better if the time
Was right (x3)
We coulda done better

(repeat)
