That is love

That is love

Looking through a magazine
I find a picture of you, girl
A photograph I'd never seen
I see my fears have come true, girl
Looking at a face I knew so well
Hiding your emotions all too well
It's not surprising the things you've been through
I know you were so lonely for a time
But now I hear that all your life's in line
This feeling's got to be true for you
Girl

That is love

That is love you're feeling now

That is love

That is love

That is love you're feeling now

That is love

Holding on to all your dreams
Must have been hard on you
It could've gone the way you dreamed
If only I knew what to do
And now I hear you've finally found someone
There isn't any reason, girl, to run
It's not so easy, I know, to relax
Now that I've grown I sympathise
Understand and realise
My intentions are from the heart

Girl

That is love

That is love you're feeling now

That is love

That is love... girl
That is love you're feeling now
That is love

The time was right to say goodbye
I'm not sure you understood
Your love for me was clear to see
You did everything you could
I felt ashamed, I was to blame
For all that I did wrong
Now your heart has a place and I'm Sure it's in haste to re-start

That is love
That is love you're feeling now
That is love
That is love
That is love you're feeling now
That is love
That is love... girl

Is, is, is this love
