You say you want to feel
Everything again like it used to be
Then let's go back
Unravel all our string
Marking all our paths on the trail
So we're not lost
Let's find a new way back to your heart
To your heart

You say you want to see
Everything again like it used to be
Then hold your breath
I'll take you back in time
And show you the world that made you mine
On second thought
How 'bout we find a new way back to your heart
To your heart

How am I to say everything that I needed to

There has to be a way to make you see the same way that I do
Well I don't know how but i'll stay cause you are the one
And I'll lift up my hands to the sun

We don't have to hide
All I know is that we still have time
On second thought
Won't you come out of your shell
And show me the love you work so well
On second thought
We can find a new way back
We'll find a new way back
We can find a new way back to your heart
To your heart
