(Fuck yeah!)

I feel the pressure rising
And the weight
Increasing on my shoulders
It's breaking bones
And tearing me apart
And I think about the race
I'm running against time
As I get older
Only to remember
I had no chance from the start

But I won't give up
Nothing can stop me now
I've given all I have
The only way that I know how

Cos now I'm calling out and waiting
For the pressure to just pull me under
It's taking me down
Deeper than I've ever been before
I'm just calling out
And waiting for the pressure to
Just pull me under
I'm heading so much deeper than before
(Much deeper than before)

There's a sinking feeling
A reassured reminder
That seems so surreal
It's complicated
But I can't get enough
And I think about the time
I've spent convincing myself
Not to feel the pressure
That's been weighing me down
Way back from the start

But I won't go down
Nothing can stop me now

I've given all I have
The only way that I know how

Cos now I'm calling out and waiting
For the pressure to just pull me under
It's taking me down
Deeper than I've ever been before
I'm just calling out
Just pull me under
I'm heading so much deeper than before
(Much deeper than before)

(But I won't go down)
I won't go down without a fight
(And I won't back out)
I won't back out while I'm alive

Calling out
I'm heading so much deeper than
I've ever been before

Calling out
