Hoping and waiting
I'm yours for the taking
So take what you can
And run
It's useless
Let's face it
I'll just end up wasting my time
While you're moving on

So give me just one good damn reason
Why you can't see that I'm a wreck

Tell me where you are
Where you are, where you are now
And what you want
Cos you keep in weighing me down
I'm moving on
Moving on, moving on now
Say what you want
But I won't be sticking around

Confused and unstable
My cards on the table
I feel I've something to lose
I'm losing my patience
I'm fucked up
And wasted
With still nothing left to prove

So give me just one good damn reason
Why you can't see that I'm a wreck

Tell me where you are
Where you are, where you are now
And what you want
Cos you keep in weighing me down
I'm moving on
Moving on, moving on now
Say what you want
But I won't be sticking around

So tell me
Tell me where you are
Are you sleeping alone
Leave the past in the past
Cos I'm moving
Moving right along
Leave your thoughts in your head
Cos I'm not sticking around

So just tell me
Tell me where you are
Are you lost on your own
Can you find your way back
Leave those thoughts in your head
And don't forget I won't be sticking around

Tell me where you are
And what you want
I'm moving on
Say what you want
