And I pray that you are safe and sound,
That there's no fear around where you are,
And I hope, that angels save your soul,
I devoured by sorrow inside...

TONIGHT! It may happen everything,
TONIGHT! My body's shivering,
TONIGHT! These thoughts are killing me,
TONIGHT! I close my eyes and you are here,

And I wait to hear a dial call,
That you are coming home to me,
So I stand with opened arms and hands,
I filled up with wrench indeed...

TONIGHT! It may happen everything,
TONIGHT! My body's shivering,
TONIGHT! These thoughts are killing me,
TONIGHT! I close my eyes and you are here
