That sky is a-shine with sheen
Those eyes are a green machine
Spare me your whining
In my rainy gazebo tree
Deep in my silver pit
The walls are all thick with it
My, but you slay me
In my rainy gazebo tree
Bless my baby eyes
Don't you know Jesus died?
I'm better off inside
Strip and you lose your hide
What's in that thermos man?
Your female's a garbage can
So you haven't filled her up
Ok try to fill my cup

It's moonshine from cactus
Well, I guess it can't wreck us
Bless my baby eyes
Don't you know Jesus died?
I'm better off inside
Strip and you lose your hide
Bless my baby eyes
Don't you know Jesus died?
Spare me your moon shining
In my rainy gazebo tree
In my rainy gazebo tree
In my rainy gazebo tree
