We've all got troubles
We all make mistakes
But let's not take a little river turn it into lake
We've all been humble
We've lost and we've found
But it can never get the best of us if we're not looking down
And I wonder, are there others like me
Yeah I wonder
I've got the whole world left to see

Hey everybody if you listen to the beat
We'll celebrate it
Now I stumble at feet
Hey everybody do you know what I mean
We can get it dirty why we're keeping it clean
Na na na na ...
You got it bad well she's got it work
She's got no chocolate in the bank account no cheese in the purse
You're feeling connected with no self-esteem
Just when you finally found you're glad that someone's taking a cling
When you wonder why is life this way
Yes you wonder
Could there be a brighter day
Hey everybody if you listen to the beat
We'll celebrate it
Now I stumble at feet
Hey everybody do you know what I mean
We can get it dirty why we're keeping it clean
Na na na na ...

And I wonder, wonder now
And I wonder, wonder now
Everybody won't you help me sing it one more time
So that everyone can hear you
Oh yeah yeah yeah

Hey everybody if you listen to the beat
We'll celebrate it

Now I stumble at feet
Hey everybody do you know what I mean
We can get it dirty why we're keeping it clean
Hey everybody if we're gonna take a stand Now let the world hear you now while clapping your hands
Hey everybody if you listen to the beat
Let the world hear you now but stopping your feet
I say hey
Na ...
Let's celebrate here
Let me hear you stop your feet one more time
Na...
Hey everybody, Hey everybody
