I see every movement on my flatscreen.
...Between my alarm and all my dogs they won't get me.
I think there's someone walking down the hallway.
At least I've got my cameras all over there watching.

I'm safe right here at home,
but soon i'll have to go...

Somehow I think these cameras might have turned against me
cuz right now my readings are all coming back empty.
It broke down, and i dont think that there's time to fix it.
By now the tables all have probably shifted.

I think my cover's blown.
I guess I have to go.....I guess i have to go

I guess I have to go now, gotta find myself a new home
now:
Gonna pacvk a bag and hit the road...

I need a temporary place to crash now.
But if i leave i think theyll probly find me somehow.
My knees are aching from all the running.
I need: to find an easier way to make money

I think my cover's blown.
I think my cover's blown.
Yeah I think my cover's blown.
So I guess I have to go.....I guess i have to go

I guess I have to go now, gotta find myself a new home
now:
Gonna pack a bag and hit the road...and find myself a home
.....where I can be alone.....and take stuff up the nose.
