Darkest eyes hypnotise

The air smells of warning

With fiery light in the sky

Blackest night, evil eye

Many have fallen

To the strange ways of the night

Fever Dream

Fight in the Kingdom of Shadows

Fever Dream

Trapped in a nightmare

You can't wake up 'cause it's real

Torment and anger, waves of searing pain

Having to shut out the screams of the insane

All is denied to the wicked and the deranged.
