Taking the city

On an iron horse they ride

The evil is coming to take you away

When you hear the thunder

Exploding down the streets

You know it's time to run and hide

Close the gates

Don't you let 'em in

Hell Riders of Sin

Demons in leather

They're out to rule the world

On a stormy night they ride the wind

When lightening strikes

You know they're getting near

Step aside, look out they're coming in
