I feel like I don't deserve the love that I receive, cause
I'm a liar
Telling tales disguise how stale the truth is,
But you use this gift denial and you do, yeah you do It's easier to be somebody else when you hardly even know yourself
Ooh ooh ooh
I feel like I don't live up to all that I believe and I admire Every time I try this feeling builds and it's a guilt that I require,
And I do, yeah I do
It's easier to be somebody else, when you hardly even
know yourself
It's easier to be somebody else, when you hardly even
know yourself
Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
I feel like I don't deserve the love that I receive
I feel like I don't live up to all that I believe Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh
