I've lost my head, I've lost my way
Trying to find, what I can't replay
Three little words I heard you say

I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed
Thought you said it was true love
Now you won't repeat it
I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed

Now that you've left, I feel the same
My empty bed calls out your name
How could you forget, how could you change

I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed
Thought you said it was true love
Now you won't repeat it
I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed

I've searched all night and all the day
To see if I can recreate
The love we had, oh what a waste!

I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed

I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed
Thought you said it was true love
Now you won't repeat it
I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed

(I've lost my head, I've lost my way)
I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed
Thought you said it was true love
Now you won't repeat it

(I've lost my head, I've lost my way)
I'm not looking for new love
You were all I needed
