I'm supposed to represent

I'm too motherfuckin' raw to be all
Worried if these broads, is fuckin' with me ya'll
Y'all can suck my right and left nut with the same slurp
No more of the fames perks, I'm back in LeGrange hurt

Can't work, same dirt I thought I had wiped off
The same jerk that used to jerk Paul now he's my boss
Lonely if I lost, my light on the pathway
No more, Bubba K just as white as a trash day

Say you can take the boy out of the country
But can't take the country out the boy, even with money
I believe it was funny, I was deceivingly burning
At the Four Seasons, all four seasons with Sunny

But I'll be just fine, the grind's in my bloodline
It's what's in your guts time, baby, I'm one rhyme
From being what that man paid me to be
What no concrete but I was raised by the streets

It's your turn, you supposed to represent
Do yo thang, you supposed to represent
Stop playin', you supposed to represent
It's only right, you supposed to represent

It's your turn, you supposed to represent
Do yo thang, you supposed to represent
Stop playin', you supposed to represent
Not only get money, you supposed to represent

Sometimes you gotta lose yourself to find out where you really are
Let the cut burn then you know you earned it when it scars
I been a star, my name rang bells
But it means not a thing if it can't bring sales

If you ain't seen hell you should get a load of this Just a dose of hopelessness while you sip your Mo and Cris

If I ain't on your list, shit you can't win them all
But until he died, most of y'all ain't fuck wit Biggie
Smalls

At least south of D.C. and west of Pittsburgh
That points, they don't know legacy 'til you resting in dirt
If resting is sure, a loser isn't sexiness
So make me the deadliest, MC I guess it just

What meant that I be mentioned with the greatest spittin' then
Lord, at least let me get it up and pay the rent again
You may intend to win but my alternative's
The coffin or the furnacing talking more determinant

It's your turn, you supposed to represent
Do yo thang, you supposed to represent
Stop playin', you supposed to represent
It's only right, you supposed to represent

It's your turn, you supposed to represent
Do yo thang, you supposed to represent
Stop playin', you supposed to represent
Not only get money, you supposed to represent

What, you think I'm scared, you think I'm a pussy?
Really now, how far did you think you can push me?
Before I snap, just like that and bust back
Fear, he don't live around here, what's that?

What, you think I'm scared, you think I'm a pussy?
Really now, how far did you think you can push me?
Before I snap, just like that and bust back
Fear, he don't live around here, what's that?

Just stack, get your mind right and get your cheddar better
Volcano gone erupt, it won't lay at rest forever
Every level of the game, the country boys gettin' to it Nothin' but your lips is movin', hush you body shit and do it

I been knew it, you don't wanna jump bad
Hatin' escalates and you don't want it to become that I'm from that, dying breed of white MC
That knows what it's like to be told it ain't right to be

Rappin', now adapting just so happens it's the thing
now
To get a cracker on your roster since Marshall came out

I can't explain how, vital time it is Even now I wouldn't exchange our lives, mine for his like this

It's your turn, you supposed to represent
Do yo thang, you supposed to represent
Stop playin', you supposed to represent
It's only right, you supposed to represent

It's your turn, you supposed to represent
Do yo thang, you supposed to represent
Stop playin', you supposed to represent
Not only get money, you supposed to represent
