Verse 1:

Lord, I need to feel the touch of Your hand,
Your will for my life I want to understand.
Lord, forgive me like only You can,
For You're the God of a second chance.

Verse 2:

Lord, I'm tired of the way that I am,
In Your love I want to live instead
To heed to Your every command,
For You're the God of a second chance,
For You're the God of a second chance.

Chorus:

Show me all of my wrongs,
Forgive me and make me strong.
Oh, save me, restore my song,
For You're the God of a second chance,
For You're the God of a second chance.

Vamp:

You gave me a second chance.
You forgave me like only You can.
You gave me a second chance, oh.

Ending:

For You're the God of a second chance
