How strong the impulse in your head? Can't [Incomprehensible] even with a sedative You got a means, you got a way You don't care what may come out of it

Start up, more positive Start up, more emotional Start up, never mind other eyes

Start up, are you ready now? Start up, the time has come Start up, stamp your feet hard

You can do everything now With maximum overdrive, you

You were a coward who shut yourself up But you changed it beyond recognition You found a reason, you found a dream You don't care what may come out of it

Nice life, more pleasure Nice life, more freedom Nice life, always keep on going

Nice life, are you ready now? Nice life, starting the show Nice life, shake your head hard

You can do everything now With maximum overdrive

Everybody has it in their mind Everybody has it in their head Everybody has it in their fist You only don't know how to use it, you
