It was a beautiful day

When I closed my eyes slowly that day
I saw the clear blues sky and everyone's
Wonderful smiles in front of my eyes
As if the old days had come back

How small the sky is when
Looking down from this window?

Trying to find bright sunny days
Searching all day and night
I run fast to the way to sunny day, sunny day
Lights shining on the silent moment
What do they mean? I wonder, I wonder

Somehow I shed big drops of tears
Sweet moment, it was a beautiful day

As days go by, the lights get smaller
As the care words get louder
I'll never forget all love is here
As if the old days had come back

How small the sky is when
Looking down from this window?

Trying to find bright sunny days
Searching all day and night
I run fast to the way to sunny day, sunny day
The lights shining on the silent moment
What do they mean? I wonder

Is it the same light, I felt a long time ago?
The same light I saw, such wonderful days, days
