If I start to hurt tonight
Baby, I'm blaming it on you.
I'm not gonna be myself tonight.
But I'm never gonna be you.

Cause sometimes we need a break
From life, while living life.
And sometimes we need a hand
To hold, somebody to hold.

Pull me close, and kiss my cheek.
You'd tell me you loved me, if you did.
Say goodnight, don't speak too loud.
Leave me with something to dream about.
Say I love you, and mean it too.
Leave here without anything left to do.
Call me in the morning, when I'm awake.
Heal my heart that did nothing but break.
If you want to say goodbye, I will too.
If you actually say goodbye, I'll still love you.

Well I don't care whether you stay or leave
But if you're gonna go, just go quietly.
Don't make a sound, I wanna get some sleep.
I don't care if you cry, I won't care if you drink.
And if you say goodbye, say it as a whisper.
I don't wanna hear a lie, just get into your car.
And leave... Oh, baby leave!

Cause sometimes we need a break
From life, while living life.
And sometimes we need a hand
To hold, somebody to hold.

Pull me close, and kiss my cheek.
You'd tell me you loved me, if you did.
Say goodnight, don't speak too loud.
Leave me with something to dream about.
Say I love you, and mean it too.
Leave here without anything left to do.
Call me in the morning, when I'm awake.
Heal my heart that did nothing but break.

If you want to say goodbye, I will too.
If you actually say goodbye, I'll still love you.

If you want me, you'd stay.
If you don't want me, you'd go.
Whatever you choose to do.
I don't even care about you.

But if you want me, I want you.
If you don't want me, I still want you.
I could never not care about you.
You're my angel, whatever you do...
Basically, I love to hate you.
