Why, why do you have to be so perfect?
Cause I, I don't know just what to do anymore.
I love the way you grin at me.
But I hate the way you are so mean.
Should I let go?
Or should I hold on?
I just don't know what to do.
You're just fogging up my mind.

So I'll tell you now.
That I'm in love with you.
Because hearts are always broken,
When words are left unspoken.
You can't see the real me,
But you can believe.
Pretending won't get you anywhere,
I'll just fall for the person you pretend to be.
So I won't, no I won't ever again,
Leave these words left unspoken.

I remember the boy that I first fell in love with.
He was so awesome, he was so perfect.
And I didn't know how to say those words.
The words "I Love You" don't mean anything
Unless you really mean them.
But I didn't know for sure, so I left them unspoken.
And then that time, he went away,
My heart was permanently broken.

Yeah I'm in love with you.
Because hearts are always broken,
When words are left unspoken.
You can't see the real me,
But you can believe.
Pretending won't get you anywhere,
I'll just fall for the person you pretend to be.
So I won't, no I won't ever again,
Leave these words left unspoken.

I wish I could tell you right now,
How much I'm really hurting.
But I can't string two words together,

To explain most everything.
So I'll just say, what I came to say,
And I hope, I hope you don't feel the same.
I really do love you, but please don't
Love me back, I'm not used to it.
Yeah, you...
You're so much trouble to me.
You...
You're always driving me crazy.
Yeah you...
I'm in love with the person you pretended to be.

But I'll just say it,
Hoping I don't mean it,
But hearts are always broken.
When words are left unspoken.

Yeah I love you.
I love you.
I love the person I got used to.
I love you.
I love you.
I love the person I got used to.

Yeah I love you, I need to let it out,
Because hearts are always broken,
When words are left unspoken.
You can't see the real me,
But you can believe.
Pretending won't get you anywhere,
I'll just fall for the person you pretend to be.

And I won't, I won't.
I won't ever leave something that's important,
I won't ever leave it out, I won't ever leave it unspoken.
